

PULASKI COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Preserving history for a better future.

History matters

The Pulaski County Historical Society preserves the history of the county in a variety of ways.

- Historical museum, including both a physical space and online access to The Story of Us
- Educational programs
- Monthly e-newsletters with local history
- Partnerships with local organizations
- Access to your family history through the County Genealogist
- Access to general history through the County Historian

The Society does not charge for services, programs, or entry into the museum. The only income available for museum displays and community programming comes through memberships, sponsorships, and contributions.
